

The Gyascutus

Ephraim Bee and his Eclampsus Vitus

A NEW BOOK

by Clamp Historicist

Seth Slopes

AKA Tim Spenser

The Gyascutus, Ephraim Bee's Eclampsus Vitus

is a voyage of discovery as Seth charts new ground exploring E Clampus Vitus back East. From its inception in 1845 in West Union, WV by The Grand Gyascutus himself, Ephraim Bee, Eclampsus Vitus (as it was known then) spread throughout the East. 100% of the proceeds of the sale of this book goes to the preservation of the Wall of Comparative Ovarians in Murphys,
